A Welcome Visitor.

The men who worked in the Men and Religious movement will remember the Rev. J. K. Browne, who came a week earlier than the meetings and did such strenuous work.

They will be glad to hear that he is again visiting the city and will preach morning and evening at the First Congregational church.

The morning service will be at 11 a. m. and the evening service at 7:45.

Mr. Browne has spent a life in Turkey and Armenia, the seat of many present troubles, and hence great interest attaches itself to his visit.

Members of other churches are cordially invited to meet Mr. Browne again.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Friday morning at 11:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. White, at 2624 Washington, El Paso. The bride, Miss Zula Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. White, of this city, was united in marriage by Rev. J. K. Browne, pastor of the First Congregational church. The white home was attractively decorated with potted plants and with dahlias and ferns from San Francisco. The wedding luncheon was served on a table which was decorated with cut glass, linen and ferns. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilkinson, of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. M. I. Brooks, Miss Nove Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Love, all of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will make their home in El Paso.

Lieut. Edwin O'Connor, of the 6th cavalry, and Miss Nell Frost, of Sierra Blanca, were married at 6:20 o'clock last Wednesday evening at St. Clement's Episcopal church. Rev. Henry Easter performed the ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by R. C. Love. The bride party was chartered in from Sierra Blanca by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Love Tuesday morning. After the services the bride party were driven to the Hotel Paso del Norte, where dinner was served. Covers were laid for six. Those of the party were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Love, Lieut. W. S. T. Halcorn, and the host and hostess, Lieut. and Mrs. O'Connor. The bride was charming in a stunning going away suit of plum colored broadcloth with hat and boots to match. Lieut. and Mrs. O'Connor will make a short trip through Colorado, after which they will be at home for a short while to friends at Sierra Blanca.

Women's Organizations.

Mrs. Edward C. Hitchcock will entertain the Women's Christian Temperance union at her home, 2515 Federal street, on Friday afternoon with an informal gathering.

The Queen's Daughters of the Catholic Women's Benevolent society will give an old fashioned concert and dance at the Knights of Columbus hall on Friday, September 22, for the benefit of the orphan fund. The entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. C. C. Kelly, and Mrs. E. V. Berrien will be in charge of the concert.

The Women's A.M. society of the Congregational church held the first meeting of the fall and winter season on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Stiles, on Thorne avenue. Only the members of the society were present. During the afternoon, fancy needle work was done as a preparation for the annual bazaar to be held just before Christmas. Toward the close of the afternoon, the hostess, assisted by her two daughters, served the guests with an ice course.

Catholic women of East El Paso were praised by bishop A. J. Schuler Thursday night for the work they are doing for the new Catholic church, to be built in the Alta Vista section. Bishop Schuler, with father Maloney, who is pastor of the new church, attended an entertainment given at the home of Mrs. D. Foran at 2905 Grand avenue, to the members of the Catholic A.M. society and their friends Thursday night. The bishop made a short talk to the people assembled and after praying, the work of the women, said he hoped that work would begin next week on the new church, which at first is to be a mission chapel. Later it is planned to build a permanent and handsome church. The chapel to be built on Hudson street, will be 20x60 feet, with Mission front. At the entertainment Thursday evening about 50 were present. There was vocal and instrumental music and refreshments were served.

The Dorcas Missionary society and Borean Sunday school class of Trinity Methodist church were delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Miss Erle Middleton at the home of her mother, 419 Prospect avenue. After the business and study were concluded, games were played. The contest being won by Miss Harriet Heermans, the consolation falling to Miss Kila Sheppard. During the evening, the evening the guests were favored with a reading by Miss Betty Mary Smith, following which refreshments were served. The party was also given as a handkerchief shower for Miss Ruby Ponder, who leaves soon to enter Wellesley college. She received many beautiful handkerchiefs. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. T. Middleton, her sister, Mrs. J. H. Moore, and Mrs. L. J. Ayers. Among those present were Misses Betty Mary Ponder, Ruby Ponder, Helen Sampson, Isabelle Smith, Virginia Smith, Mary Ponder, Lydia Goch, Miss Sheppard, Mary Heermans, Harriet Heermans, Florence Durkin, Mrs. M. and Mrs. J. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, Messrs. Thomas F. Webb, Les Nichols, Messrs. Tinsie, Samuel Middleton, Chas. Gooding, P. McWhorter, Howard Foster.

Musical.

The Rafael Diaz and Denton concert committee has been busy the past week in communication with the list of patronesses whose names have been handed in. The committee feels very much encouraged. One of the leading musicians who will play at the concert is Miss Dixie, who has a wonderful tenor voice, full of expression. Miss Dixie is a young pianist, is said to be of excellent ability. In Berlin, Mr. Denton was the most sought young American pianist. Both young artists are very popular. The musical world in New York, having had great success in their sales records, and in grand opera, at present both are in New York filling an engagement. These young men will be heard in El Paso in a grand opera concert on November 2, at the Plaza Grand theater. The proceeds are to be given to the pipe organ fund for the new high school. Many social affairs are being arranged for the coming season. Three boxes have been sold at this early hour.

Miss Ruth Augur Again Takes Charge of Herald Society Page

BEGINNING Monday, Miss Ruth Monroe Augur, who for the past five years has been connected with The El Paso Herald, the greater part of the time as society reporter, will resume charge of the society page. Miss Augur has scores of friends in El Paso and it will be with pleasure that they will receive the news of her return. Miss Augur promises to make the society pages more interesting than ever; accuracy has always been a characteristic of her work in this department and, adding this to her ability to write and the facility with which she gathers the news, The Herald promises its society readers something out of the ordinary this fall and winter.
